Sales Commission

The Company levies a flat rate of 15% + VAT on all display that the Client makes available for sale through the gallery. If Client is selling any of the exhibited work, the Client's sale price should take into account this levy.

Insurance

The gallery has insurance up to the value of £5,000 (five thousand pounds) for damage or loss caused by theft, vandalism, fire and other reasonably foreseeable mishaps to exhibition displays in the gallery space. If the displays you wish to exhibit exceed this value, you are encouraged to obtain additional insurance of your own.

Displays

The gallery utilises the Stas system C-Rail cliprail hanging system comprising rail, suspenders and Zipper hooks that can take up to 10kg in weight. Please ensure that displays that require hanging are properly framed and equipped with the necessary hanging accessories. For more information on the Stas C-Rail, please visit this link.

The Company's representatives and/or staff will not be responsible for preparing your displays for the exhibition, for taking it down or for packing. If you wish for us to do so, the Company's representatives and/or staff will not be responsible for any damage caused to your work and additional charges apply as listed in the Facilities Charges above.
